This is to certify that

Silviya Dobрева

Has successfully completed sixty (60) hours in the ten-day
Erasmus+ CPD course:

English & Methodology
A 21st Century Approach for English Teachers

Organised by English Matters in Leeds, England, from 01/08/2016 to 12/08/2016

Professional Development: The participant has joined in hands-on workshops and interactive sessions to enjoy a refreshing wealth of teaching techniques for the classroom, within a humanistic, task-based and collaborative approach in order to create learning conditions conducive to effective and affective learning. Field projects and visits to places of historical and cultural significance, as part of the English Matters' "Contexts4Content" methodology, have helped the participant to explore British culture and society as reference contexts for producing teaching resources, while developing communicative competence in English. The participant has also accomplished reflective journal writing and joined in discussion about dissemination strategies within a European Dimension in Education.

Evaluation of participation: EXCELLENT.

This Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Course has been organised in the framework of the European ERASMUS+ Programme, Action KA1.
